

Risk Management Program Available

The Executive Liability Division of Great American Insurance Group is committed to offering industry-leading customer service and risk management assistance to its policyholders.

Great American has joined forces with Jackson Lewis, a national law firm specializing in employment, labor and benefits law, to provide a risk management program for our policyholders. This program is available with the following Great American policies: ExecPro® Private Solution, ExecPro® Management Liability and Corporate Protection (for private companies), ExecPro® Nonprofit Solution, and Non-Profit Organization Executive Protection.

For over 50 years, Jackson Lewis has specialized in providing preventive strategies and positive solutions in the practice of workplace law. Jackson Lewis works with employers to devise policies and procedures promoting constructive employee relations and limiting disputes. Jackson Lewis is experienced in all aspects of workplace law.

EPL Loss Prevention Services from Jackson Lewis Include:

- Access to Jackson Lewis "Hotline Service" – Policyholders receive access to a toll-free "hotline" number which provides complimentary and confidential telephone consultation pertaining to Employment Practices matters, such as those discussed in the Guide mentioned below, as well as basic workplace issues.
- Reducing Workplace Claims Guide – Via the toll-free "hotline" number, policyholders can request a copy of Jackson Lewis' Reducing the Risk of Employment Practices Liability Claims Guide. The Guide contains general information about such diverse workplace law issues as the legal basis for employment claims; the hiring process; pre-employment testing; employee grievances; investigation of sexual harassment and other workplace-related problems; conducting effective discharge and discipline; and maintaining personnel records.
- Preventive Strategies Newsletter – Via the toll-free "hotline" number, policyholders may subscribe to Jackson Lewis' complimentary national and regional e-bulletins which provide regular analysis and commentary about legal, legislative and political developments that affect the law of the workplace.
- Jackson Lewis Training Session – Jackson Lewis educational seminars and management training sessions on federal equal employment laws and other risk management services are available to policyholders at a special rate.
- Special Rates – Jackson Lewis will offer special billing rates to Great American policyholders to assist in developing preventive practices, preparing employee handbooks and training supervisors.
